

This is a detailed topographic map of a region in Colorado, centered around the town of Cottonwood. The map features a grid system with section numbers (1-36) and township/range coordinates (T. 19 S., T. 20 S., T. 21 S. and R. 24 E., R. 25 E.). Contour lines are drawn at 20-foot intervals, with major contours labeled every 100 feet (e.g., 4600, 4700, 4800). The map shows several roads, including a major highway (US-160) running diagonally from the top left to the bottom right. Other roads are labeled as 'Cottonwood Wash', 'Westwater Wash', and 'Cottonwood Canyon'. The town of Cottonwood is located in the center-right of the map, with a cluster of buildings and a 'BM 4347' (benchmark) nearby. To the south of Cottonwood is the 'Little Hole' area. The map also shows various geographical features like 'Cottonwood Canyon', 'Westwater Canyon', and 'Cottonwood Wash'. A scale bar at the top indicates distances in miles (0 to 1.5 miles) and a north arrow is present. The map is bordered by a grid with coordinates: 109°15' to 109°30' longitude and 39°07'30" to 39°15' latitude.
