

Mapped, edited, and published by the Geological Survey
Control by USGS, USC&GS, and Oregon State Highway Department
Topography from aerial photographs by multiplex methods
Aerial photographs taken 1952. Field check 1954
Polyconic projection. 1927 North American datum
10,000-foot grid based on Oregon coordinate system, south zone
Dashed land lines indicate approximate locations
Unchecked elevations are shown in brown
1000-meter Universal Transverse Mercator grid ticks,
zone 10, shown in blue

ROAD CLASSIFICATION
Heavy-duty ——— Light-duty ———
Medium-duty ——— Unimproved dirt ———
U.S. Route ——— State Route ———

ANLAUF, OREG.
N 4330—W 12300/15
1954
AMS 1371 II—SERIES V792

FOR SALE BY U.S. GEOLOGICAL SURVEY, DENVER, COLORADO 80225, OR RESTON, VIRGINIA 22092
A FOLDER DESCRIBING TOPOGRAPHIC MAPS AND SYMBOLS IS AVAILABLE ON REQUEST

USGS
Historical File
Topographic Division

MAR 23 1978
2300