

First Edition 1943
Prepared under the direction of the Chief of Engineers, U. S. Army
Army Map Service, (SU), U. S. Army, Washington, D. C. 20315
Base compiled from controlled mosaic prepared by the Army Map Service, Lake Survey Branch, Detroit, Michigan
Control by U. S. C. & G. S., U. S. G. S. and O. C. S. & G. S.
Aerial Photography by the Woltz Studio, Inc., Des Moines, Iowa, 1941.
Topography from U. S. G. S., St. Albans quadrangle, 1914-16.
Surveyed in cooperation with the State of Vermont.
Polyconic Projection, North American datum 1927.

ROAD CLASSIFICATION 1941
Dependable hard-surface, heavy-duty road. ————
Loose-surface graded, dry weather road. - - - - -
Secondary, hard-surface, all-weather road. ————
Dirt road. - - - - -
State Route 42. ————
More than two lanes indicated by note along road with tick at point of change.

HISTORICAL FILES
(DO NOT REMOVE)

Scale 1:62,500

Scale 1:62,500

Scale 1:62,500

Scale 1:62,500

Scale 1:62,500

Scale 1:62,500

Scale 1:62,500

Scale 1:62,500

Scale 1:62,500

Scale 1:62,500

Scale 1:62,500

Scale 1:62,500

HISTORICAL FILES
(DO NOT REMOVE)

Scale 1:62,500

Scale 1:62,500

Scale 1:62,500

Scale 1:62,500

Scale 1:62,500

Scale 1:62,500

Scale 1:62,500

ST. ALBANS, VT.
N4445-W7300/16X15

872-N-II-E/2