

This topographic map depicts the Rio Grande National Forest and surrounding areas. The map is overlaid with a grid showing latitude from 38°00'N to 42°00'N and longitude from 106°30'W to 106°00'W. Contour lines indicate elevation, with major peaks reaching over 10,000 feet. Several creeks are shown, including Buck Park Cr., Elk Cr., Fourmile Cr., Saguache Cr., and Hat Springs Cr. Trails are marked with dashed lines and labels, such as Fourmile Trail 774, Saguache Creek Trail 776, California Gulch Trail 906, and Hat Springs Trail 730. The map also shows the Rio Grande National Forest boundary and the California Gulch area. The map is oriented with North at the top.
