

This topographic map depicts the Medicine Bow National Forest region, characterized by dense contour lines indicating elevation. The North Platte River flows through the center, with numerous tributaries such as School Creek, French Creek, and Bull Creek. Key geographical features include Barcus Peak, Jenkins Peak, and the Medicine Bow Mountains. The map is overlaid with a coordinate grid, with latitude ranging from 41°07'30" N to 41°15' N and longitude from 106°37'30" W to 106°30' W. Roads are shown in black, with French Creek Road and A-A Road being prominent. Several reservoirs and draws are also labeled, including Fingerle Hollow, Big Hollow, and Homestead Draw. The map includes a scale bar in the top right corner, indicating a distance of 1,540,000 feet.
